

Hosetta Belcher Coleman is a Senior Vice President at Fifth Third Bank. Hosetta joined Fifth Third bank in 2005. Her experience spans over 25 years in financial services, 20 of which have been spent in strategic human resources leadership positions. She currently leads the University Relations division at Fifth Third bank.

Prior to joining Fifth Third Bank, her professional experience was as an Employee Relations Manager with JP Morgan Chase and a Strategic Human Resources leader at Bank of America. Ms. Coleman's work experience also includes Allstate Insurance and roles in the nonprofit sector. Hosetta founded Tampa Bay's National Association of African Americans in Human Resource (NAAAHR) Chapter and is still actively involved in the organization. She is a previous board member of Inroads, Center for Autism and Related Disabilities Development Board, Hillsborough Counties Community Advisory Board and CEO Direct Program which is a Regional Leadership Initiative of the Tampa Bay Partnership.

Hosetta is also involved with the Society for Human Resource Management and serves on the Florida A&M University Foundation Board of Directors. In addition, she is a member of Tennessee State University's Career Development Advisor Board and College of Business Advisory Board. She is a member of Gamma Theta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. Her Alpha Kappa Alpha membership began at Tuskegee University, Gamma Kappa Chapter. She is also a member of the Tampa Bay Chapter of The Links, Inc. Her community work includes job readiness coaching for the under employed and unemployed. She is a sought-after presenter and life coach.

Hosetta received her BS in Business Administration from Tuskegee University and an MBA from the University of Phoenix. She is also a certified coach and advocate for lifelong learning.